INTRODUCTION

This handbook is designed for candidates seeking the Medication Assistant Certification in Alabama. It describes the process of applying for and taking the Medication Assistant Examination.

It is important that you read the entire handbook and keep a copy of it until you are notified of your examination results.

The purpose of the Medication Assistant Examination is to ensure that individuals who administer medication have the basic knowledge and skills to perform their duties.

Pearson VUE will score and report the results of the Medication Assistant Examination to the Alabama Board of Nursing.

Completion of this medication assistant examination through the Alabama Board of Nursing will qualify a nursing assistant-certified with a medication assistant for consideration of employment to administer medications and nursing commission-approved treatments to residents in nursing homes, under the direct supervision of a designated registered nurse.
